DO NOT TALK TO COPS

THEY ARE LEGALLY ALLOWED TO LIE TO YOU AND THEY WILL USE EVERYTHING YOU SAY AGAINST YOU.

“We just want to hear what you saw.”
They assume you are lying. They want to accuse you of a crime.

“Your friend already told us you did it.”
She probably didn’t.

“You’ll get out faster if you talk.”
You will not. They will hold you longer for more questioning, or they will transfer you to the county jail.

“We already have enough evidence to put you away.”
They probably don’t have any. And even if they do have some, do not give them more.

“We can get you a good deal if you confess.”
Police do not have that power! Plea deals are up to the prosecutor, who will use everything you say against you.

“I WILL NOT SPEAK. I WANT A LAWYER.”
